

Volcan Sajama

Bolivia, 2002

Down to jungle first-Indiana Rob on the Inca Trail to Chulamani

Base camp: The women to my left made our hats, from wool that she spun, from her own lamas!

Good weather day:
I actually pay a lot of money to do this

Summit: 6,522 metres, 6:00 a.m., -40° F, Fun

Every day is a bad hair day on Sajama

“Bonding” with the locals at the hot springs. Sajama in background
